

TJORITJA / WEST MACDONNELL NATIONAL PARK

Part of The Red Centre Way

Ormiston Gorge

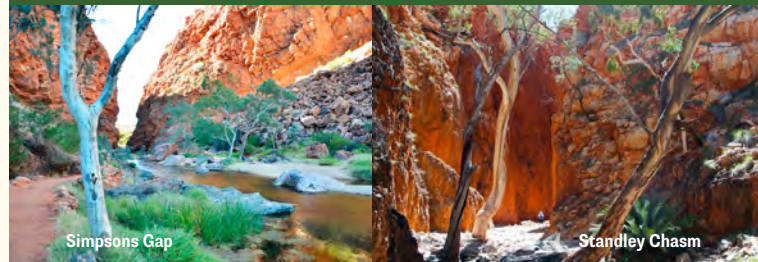

Stretching 160 kms west of Alice Springs, TJORITJA/WEST MACDONNELL NATIONAL PARK offers ancient beauty and world-famous walking trails. Discover important refuges for plants and animals you won't find anywhere else and relics of tropical forest from a bygone era. Highlights are gorges with surprising waterholes, unexpected land formations and chasms to explore, swim or relax.

Uncover more than just the 'icons'. THE RED CENTRE WAY not only offers a journey of adventure, it allows you to pack in as much, or as little, as you like. Take a one way journey from Alice Springs to Uluru or vice versa, via tour bus/guide, self drive or hire vehicle. Explore further with a 'loop' on the Mereenie Road if you have a 4WD, or enjoy a day trip from Alice Springs to parts of this adventure drive.

Ellery Creek Big Hole

Permits for access through Aboriginal Lands are required if you are traveling through the Mereenie Loop, The Red Centre Way. See: Alice Springs Visitor Information Centre, Hermannsburg Service Station, Kings Canyon Resort. A small fee applies.
